

Prelate Mardirossian is currently pursuing a master's degree at Fuller Theological Seminary.

On November 17, 1995, the Joint Session of the Religious and Executive Councils of the Western Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America unanimously elected the Right Reverend Moushegh Mardirossian Locum Tenens of the Prelacy.

On May 3, 1996, in Los Angeles, he was elected to the position of Prelate of the Western Prelacy of the Armenian Apostolic Church of America and for this honor I sent my sincere congratulations. I wish Prelate Mardirossian every continued success in his new position serving the Armenian Church and the Armenian people, many of whom I have the honor of representing in California's 19th District.

WOMAN OF SPIRIT: CAROL ANTON MURPHY

HON. WILLIAM J. COYNE

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 1996

Mr. COYNE. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Carol Anton Murphy, a life-long resident of the Pittsburgh community, who was recently recognized as a Carlow College Woman of Spirit.

Carlow College created the Woman of Spirit Award to highlight women in the Pittsburgh area who personify the college's ideals of a Catholic liberal arts education: to involve young women in a process of self-directed, life-long learning which will free them to think clearly and creatively, to challenge or affirm cultural and aesthetic values, to respond reverently and sensitively to God and others, and to render competent and compassionate service in personal and professional life. The college has certainly fulfilled the purposes of the award in the admirable life of Carol Anton Murphy.

Carol Anton began a career of service after graduating from Carlow College in 1957 as a speech therapist for the Allegheny County School System and later for the Dioceses of Pittsburgh. Carol Anton married Maurice "Mossie" Murphy in 1959. Together, they started a family in 1964. Today, Carol and Mossie Murphy are the proud parents of 7 children and 15 grandchildren. A model family woman, Carol was the first recipient of the Commitment to Family Award by Carlow College in 1974.

Carol Murphy has demonstrated constant commitment to community and church through volunteer work. At St. Philomena, Carol delivered communion and prayer on Sundays. Along with fellow St. Philomena parishioners, Carol started Eucharist Ministers for the Sick and House Bound. She has also volunteered at Presbyterian Hospital as an Eucharistic Minister delivering communion to hospital patients.

A strong supporter of education and the right of every child to a quality education, Carol has been an active fundraiser for many Pittsburgh schools. She has worked on the behalf of St. Philomena's Guild, Central Catholic Mother's Guild, and Duquesne University Women's Advisory Board. She has also had an active history on the Carlow College Alumnae Board, serving as chair of the student alumnae parties, board president, and co-chair of the annual fund.

Carol Anton Murphy knows her Carlow College education prepared her to be an active Christian woman and taught her the importance of service and commitment to her community and the city of Pittsburgh. Carol Anton Murphy has led an exemplary life and is unquestionably a Woman of Spirit. I want to congratulate Carol Anton Murphy for receiving this prestigious award.

A TRIBUTE TO BARBARA GIBILISCO

HON. CURT WELDON

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 1996

Mr. WELDON of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Barbara Gibilisco, a student at Neumann College in Aston, PA. Ms. Gibilisco is the recipient of the Pennsylvania Association for Adult and Continuing Education 1996 Award Recognizing Outstanding Adult Students in Higher Education.

Criteria for judging undergraduate nominees are: contributions to institution and community; clearly defined goals; grades; innovative approaches to meeting educational needs; overcoming difficult circumstances in order to pursue higher education; sensitizing the institution to the needs of adult students; success in coping with numerous roles; support of others returning to school; and strength of nomination material.

Those criteria, while impressive and difficult to meet, do not capture the courage, the commitment, nor the generosity of this woman. Barbara Gibilisco is a wheelchair mobile student graduating from Neumann College in May 1996, with a bachelor's degree in liberal studies. Even though Barbara lives independently with her mother, she attends classes at Inglis House, a wheelchair community in West Philadelphia which serves as an extension site campus for Neumann College. She has maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average throughout her career.

In addition to being a student, Barbara Gibilisco owns and operates a home-based answering service; tutors the residents of Inglis House on the pre-GED and adult basic education level in reading, math, and computer literacy; is a certified Gateway tutor for the mayor's commission on literacy; is a part-time learning therapist for the Department of Education; and acts as a spokesperson for the Muscular Dystrophy Association and the Orleans Vocational Center. As a hobby, she is a licensed class amateur radio operator.

After graduation, Barbara Gibilisco plans to work full-time to support herself and her mother. Her personal objectives are to design computer software programs related to compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act; to serve as a consultant to small businesses and firms that seek to comply with the mandates of the Americans With Disabilities Act; and to work in an educational setting as a mentor, teacher, or small group leader with students in need of adult basic literacy education.

Obviously, Barbara Gibilisco is deserving of this award. The courage and commitment she has brought to fulfilling her goals for a college education combined with a generosity of spirit reflected in her efforts to bring education to others makes Barbara Gibilisco a role model for all.

TRIBUTE TO VFW POST 7337 OF CASTLETON, NY

HON. GERALD B.H. SOLOMON

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 1996

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Speaker, as you know, one group I have a particular admiration for is our veterans. It was one of the reasons I asked for a seat on the Veterans Affairs Committee in my first term, and it's one of the reasons I fought so hard to have the Veterans' Administration elevated to a full, Cabinet-level department.

And one group was always right beside me in such efforts, Veterans of Foreign Wars. I can think of no group has done more to promote the interests of our Nation's veterans. Today, I'd like to single out one VFW post, a very special one which is typical of VFW posts across the country.

VFW Post 7337 of Castleton, NY, is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year. Think of that, Mr. Speaker. It's first members were, of course, the boys just returning from Europe and the Pacific and every other theater of World War II. Then, in the early fifties, they were joined by veterans from the Korean war. In another 15 years, the veterans of the Vietnam war arrived on the scene. And finally, in this decade, we've seen those who served in the Persian Gulf join their older comrades.

From its beginning, Post 7337 was made up of citizen heroes, who left their homes and loved ones to undergo incredible hardships and sacrifices, including the supreme sacrifice, in defense of our freedoms. But the majority survived to return home, complete their educations, find jobs, raise families, and become the most respected members of their communities.

I've met many of the members of Post 7337. I was thinking of them and of other veterans like them when Ronald Reagan signed into law my measure making the Veterans' Administration a Cabinet department in 1988. With that signature, we made sure the interests of veterans would always have the ear of the U.S. President.

It is to those same interests that Post 7337 has so faithfully applied itself for 50 years.

Mr. Speaker, with the approach of Memorial Day, that special day for all veterans, I ask you and all members to join me in a special salute to VFW Post 7337 of Castleton, NY, as it celebrates its 50th year.

POST-COLD-WAR COOPERATION

HON. GEORGE W. GEKAS

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, May 14, 1996

Mr. GEKAS. Mr. Speaker, I come before the House to praise the spirit of unity and cooperation between two nations, the United States and the Republic of Lithuania, whose peoples just a few short years ago knew very
